ARRANGING FOR TWO BIG EVENTS

Chamber of Commerce Committee
Draws Tentative Plans For Coming of Cincinnati Boosters.

A RECEPTION COMMITTEE
Also Sets About Gathering Data For Dinner to be Given at Coliseum
About June 1.

At a meeting of the committee on arrangements of the Chamber of Commerce of Rush County at Chamber of Commerce headquarters last night, tentative plans were laid for a dinner which will be held at the Coliseum and for the reception of the Cincinnati boosters who will come here next Thursday.

The committee will get some data
on the proposition of giving a dinner,
as was recommended by the good roads committee recently and adopted by the board of directors. The idea of the good roads committee was to boost good roads in the county, and at the same time attract some interest in the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee will attempt to approximate the cost of the dinner which is contemplated. It was recommended by the committee that special invitations be issued to sixty prominent farmers, the road supervisors of the county and the county highway superintendent. The dinner will not cost the special invited guests and it is intended that the cost to members of the Chamber of Commerce and others shall be small.

The committee recommended that the dinner be held some place near June 1. The committee will also attend to arranging for speakers. It was the original suggestion of the good roads committee that two or three speakers from out of the city be obtained. It was pointed that a farm expert could be had from the extension department of Purdue university, that a good roads expert in Indianapolis could probably be induced to deliver an address and that some other man acquainted with Chamber of Commerce work might be invited.

A large reception committee will be appointed in a few days to meet the Cincinnati boosters who will spend an hour here next Thursday while on a booster trip through western Ohio and eastern Indiana. The boosters will represent practically all of the manufacturing concerns and wholesale houses in Cincinnati. They have a common interest with the Chamber of Commerce in that both the Cincinnati men and Rush county citizens would like to see the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction line extended to Cincinnati.

The boosters, approximately one hundred strong, will come here from Connersville in a special train of Pullman cars and will arrive at eight-thirty o'clock in the morning. Their program calls for one hour in Rushville. The reception committee will meet them at the station and march with them to the court house square
where a program will be carried out.

Three speakers will be selected from th Chamber of Commerce to make short talks welcoming the visitors here. Speakers with the visiting delegation will make short replies.

The big feature of the occasion will be Weber's prize band which is renowned as a musical organization.
The band will accompany the boosters on this trip. Most of the time spent here will be devoted to a concert by the band. This alone should attract a big crowd to the gathering on the court house square.

OVER 100 WENT TO SHELBYVILLE

Crowd Will Root Hard for Rushville Victory in Oratorical to be Held Tonight

MISS FLINT SPEAKS FIRST
Unfortunate in Drawing Place but Expects to Make Good Showing.
Program Announced

TRACK MEET CALLED OFF.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]
Shelbyville, Ind., May 8.—

The track and field meet, which was to have been held here in connection with the oratorical contest of the Central Indiana
High school league, was called off today at noon on account of the weather. The track at the fair grounds was a sea of mud and it would have been impossible to have held the meet. By an agreement it was decided to hold the meet here two weeks from today.

A crowd of over one hundred high school students left on the special train over the Pennsylvania for Shelbyville to attend the track and field meet and oratorical contest of the Central Indiana High School League
this morning. Despite the fact that the weather was not favorable, the crowd was as large as had been expected.

The weather conditions were such that the track and field meet might be called off at any time but it had not been done when the special pulled out for Shelbyville. The Rushville delegation was expected to be the largest at Shelbyville and at the oratorical contest tonight expected to make their presence known.

Miss Leah Flint, the high school's representative at the oratorical, was unfortunate in drawing first place on the program of speakers. This is always considered a handicap, but despite this Miss Flint is expected to make a good showing and the Rushville delegation will root hard for a first place in the contest. Only five schools will be represented at the oratorical instead of the six schools
as was originally planned.

Miss Mable Robins, of the Sheridan high school has withdrawn from the contest and the representatives of the high schools of Greenfield, Rushville, Westfield, Greenwood and Shelbyville will fight it out for the honors. The contest will be held in the city opera house. It was first intended to hold it in the auditorium of the high school building but the city council granted permission to use the opera house.

The judges of the contest are W. H.
Stout, W. K. Stewart and E. H. K.
McComb, all of Indianapolis. The Shelbyville high school orchestra will furnish music and the complete program is as follows:

March, "One-Step"—Meredith High School Orchestra.
Invocation—Rev. W. G. Eldred
"Toussaint L'Ouverture"—Leah Flint
"The Loneliness of Genius"—Chal-
mer Patten.
"Sweet Genevieve," Copper-Tacker—
High School Quartet.
"Poverty and Crime"—Harold Haf-ford.
"True Americanism"—Carl Girton.
"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes"
Johnson-Mozart—High School Quartet.
"Savonarola"—Ruby Billingsley.
Valse—"Anticipation"—Macklin—
High School Orchestra.
Awarding of Track and Field Meet
Medals—F. E. Ellis.

MRS. LOUISA MEYERS DEAD FOR OBSTRUCTING A ROAD

Resident of Near Milroy Passed Away Following Operation.

Mrs. Louisa Meyers, 45 years old,
wife of John Meyers, living one mile north of Williamstown, died this morning at four o'clock at the sanitorium in this city following an operation. Mrs. Meyers underwent an operation last Saturday but her condition was such that death was expected. The operation failed to relieve her. She is survived by her husband and three sons, Roy, Clarence and Edward Myers. The remains were taken to the late residence this morning. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

The Fairview township commencement will be held tonight in the Odd Fellows hall in Falmouth.

D. F. Ramsey, and son Oliver, of Carthage were visiting here this morning.

ELECTRIC SHOCK SURE TO BE FATAL

Not Expected Earl Brown, Recently
of This City, Will Recover From Injuries at Bedford.

CONTACT WITH LIVE WIRE

According to word received here, Earl Brown, formerly a lineman for the I. & C. and later for the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company, received 4,100 volts of electricity while stringing wire near Bedford Wednesday. The last news heard from him was yesterday when he was reported to be unconscious yet.
It was not thought that he could possibly recover.

Brown was stringing wire for a power company at Bedford and the wire he held came in contact with another wire charged with 4,100 volts.

Brown left here in February after having lived here for a few years.
He came here to work for the I. & C.
and later quit and went to work for the telephone company. He was married here and had a young child.
Brown was a brother of John Brown, former lineman of the I. & C., who now lives in Richmond.

THREE MEN ARE ARRANGED AND RE- LEASED ON $50 BOND.

Henry Hungerford, Elmer Hunger-
ford and Clyde Barlow were arraigned before Judge Megee this morning on charges of obstructing a highway filed by Herbert DeWitt. They were released on $50 bond. In the affidavits charging the offense DeWitt alleges that they plowed up a portion of a road in Rushville township rendering it unfit for travel. It is alleged to have been done on or about May 1. All three of the men are well known farmers living southwest of the city.

The W. W. Weakley bakery, in which the Ormes bakery is located,
was sold yesterday to Mrs. Nancy A.
Kersey of Shelbyville. The building was erected by Mr. Weakley to house the bakery which he later sold to Bert Ormes. The deal was closed here in T. M. Offutt's office.

DEVELOPMENTS IN MEXICAN SITUATION BECOME ACUTE

GARRISON AND STAFF CONFER

Utmost Secrecy is Manifested and Officials Refuse to Discuss The Unusual Meeting.

SEVERAL RUMORS AFLOAT

One is Funston Advises Two More Vessels Loaded With War Munitions For Huerta Arrived.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—Following a conference with President Wilson Secretary Tumulty today emphatically denied that General Funston had reported that critical state of affairs existed at Vera Cruz. Secretary Tumulty said:

"Reports of an attack on the American forces at Vera Cruz and that a serious crisis had arisen there are utterly without foundation. General Funston has reported to Secretary Garrison stories brought to him
by refugees regarding the conditions in Mexico City. They are, however, merely confirmatory of what is already known and there is no intention at this time of sending any additional forces to Vera Cruz."

Secretary Tumulty declined to comment on the reason for the conference between Garrison and members of the general staff which lasted until long after midnight, and the conference remains a mystery.

Secretary Garrison insisted that no
orders sending new ships to Vera Cruz had been issued "up to the present." He maintained that dispatches from General Funston were not the cause of the midnight session of the staff.

Extraordinary secrecy was manifested. General Wotherspoon, chief of staff, refused point blank to discuss the meeting. Garrison said he would not talk about it. It was the unusual air of reserve that lent
weight to the belief that the general staff did more than talk about routine matters. Unofficially it was stated that the conference was for discussion of future army maneuvers.

Among the rumors afloat was one that Huerta, having sent his family to the west coast, was preparing to lead his army in person. Another unconfirmed report was that Funston had advised officials that two more vessels loaded with munitions of war for Huerta were off the Mexican coast.

RECEPTION FOR WALDONS.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Waldon, who, with their family, will move to Connersville tomorrow, will be given at the Main Street Christian church in recognition of the activities of both Mr. and Mrs. Waldon in the church. Their going has caused the expression of much regret among the members of the church. The reception is announced for eight o'clock. A varied program of music and readings will be given.

INSPECT LOCAL PLANT.

Six stockholders of the Tipton Telephone company were in the city last evening and inspected the local automatic plant. Some changes are proposed for the Tipton plant and the men were very much impressed with the Rushville plant. They have inspected a number of telephone plants in this section of the state and found the Rushville plant one of the best.

CHANCE HUERTA WILL WITHDRAW

Dictator Sends Note of Protest to U. S. Against Extending Lines
At Vera Cruz.

MAY NOT KEEP UP MEDIATION

Admiral Mayor Recommends Marines be Landed at Tampico
to Protect Property.

AGAINST AMERICAN SHIPS.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—Dietator Huerta has issued orders that no American vessels can clear a Mexican port, according to advices from Admiral Howard. The message, dated yesterday, said General Ocre-gon has agreed to the establishment of a neutral zone at Mazatlan.

He declared his forces would not injure foreigners or destroy property.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—Chance of a withdrawal of Huerta from the mediation agreement and recommendation from Rear Admiral Mayo
at Tampico that American forces be landed to guard Tampico oil properties were new acute developments today in the Mexican situation.

Huerta sent a note to the A. B. C.
mediators protesting against American army operations at Vera Cruz.
He practically intimated that he might withdraw from the mediation agreement. He charged violation by this government of the army rule giving General Funston authority to extend his lines at Vera Cruz.

That the Rebels will be given arms
was denied by Huerta. Secretary Bryan was advised of Huerta's note
and will reply to it at once.

Admiral Mayo's suggestion to land marines at Tampico caused grave concern. Reports that two oil wells had been fired and that foreign oil employees had been detained added to the complication.

Mr. and Mrs. Burney Bohannon
and child are moving from Richmond, Ind., to Clarksburg where they will reside permanently. Mr. and Mrs.
Bohannon formerly lived in Clarksburg.

Putting Salt On The Dollar's Tail

When the manufacturer of a nationally sold article begins an advertising campaign in the newspapers he is setting a flock of dollars in motion.

They are going to be caught
by some one.

The wise dealer proceeds to sprinkle salt on the tail of the dollars by letting the public know he has the goods.

He reaps the benefit of the other man's advertising by doing just a little pushing on his own account at the right time.

The caught dollars help to make for his own prosperity as well as for that of the manufacturer.

OTHER FEATURES OF SESSION

The tenth annual meeting of the Diapason singers will be held Sunday May 17 in the Main Street Christian church. The meeting will be held at two-thirty o'clock. The committee on arrangements is at work and the program is expected to be ready in a few days. It is hoped to make this meeting a record one and a large crowd of the Diapasons is expected. Word has been received from many of the old singers that they would be present. C. C. Chester, of Des Moines, Ia., one of the old leaders, has sent word that he will attend.

The Hargrove quartet of Morris-town has also sent word that it would take part in the reunion. Miss Grace McKee, of Connorsville, will give a violin solo. ## WIRED CLERK TO HOLD HIS DAUGHTER

A. M. Taylor's Reply Was Misconstrued and J. C. Platt of Erlanger Ky., Came Here.

WEDDING NEVER TOOK PLACE

Clerk Taylor was asked yesterday afternoon to hold a couple from Erlanger, Kenton county, Kentucky, who would apply here for a marriage license. The wire came from J. C. Platt and stated this his daughter, Gertrude Platt, was under age and not to issue the license. The name of the man she was supposed to marry was not given.

Clerk Taylor answered the first message and stated that he would hold the girl if she applied for a license. In sending the message some mistake must have been made as the next message to the Clerk stated that Mr. Platt was on his way here and would get his daughter. This morning Clerk Taylor received a telephone call, supposed to have come from Mr. Platt and he was told that the couple did not come to this city. There was a great amount of mystery to the whole proceeding and Clerk Taylor believes that the couple told the father they were coming here to throw him off the track.

JURY VERDICT IS AGAINST BLAKEMON

Finds For Marion McCann in Malicious Production Case at Columbus—Out 20 Hours.

ANOTHER SUIT IS PENDING

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Columbus, Ind., May 8.—The jury in the malicious prosecution suit of William Blakemon, colored, against Marion McCann, of Rushville, found for the defendant last night after considering the evidence for more than twenty hours. Blakemon demanded ten thousand dollars, charging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution.

The case was tried here once before on a change of venue from Rush county, but the jury disagreed after being out several hours. McCann based his charges on the indictments for blackmail which were returned against him in the Rush circuit court, and in which McCann was the prosecuting witness. The jury asked for additional instructions yesterday morning, but the court declined to give them. John Ferguson, another Rushville negro also has a suit for $10,000 damages pending against McCann. His case has not yet been called for trial.

LACK OF FRESH AIR

Causes Rundown Condition. How to Keep Strong.

Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition.

If the system becomes rundown, blood thin and watery, circulation poor, no appetite, don't dose with drugs, but take our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol, not a patent medicine, as everything in it is named on every package and if it does not give you a hearty appetite, enrich the blood and create strength, we will return your money; that shows our faith in Vinol.

A case has just come to our attention from Knoxville, Tenn. Miss Carrie King says: "For three years I was all run-down, weak had no appetite and after all I that time I am glad to say Vinol has brought back my health and strength."

Try a bottle of Vinol, on our guarantee. F. B. Johnson & Co., Drug-gist, Rushville, Ind.

would you care to be tried before a jury whose minds were on other affairs and who would not listen to your testimony? The chances are you would want men who would give their whole attention to your case. You may never be tried for murder but the same proposition applies to every business transaction you make. When you want to buy an article go to the man that specializes that article. Now for instance if you need a vehicle of any kind—that is where I ring in. That is why I can give you better vehicle values, better styles and better service. My whole time and attention is centered on one thing. Every day in the year, Mr. Vehicle Buyer, I am working to obtain better prices and better style for you to make your selections from. Place your business with a man who creates new styles and is working at the business every day to give you satisfaction. I want your vehicle business and don't you think it is a better proposition to place it with me than with some one that is selling buggies as a side issue?

Judge Megee Decides to Wait Until Farmers Get Over Most of Their Spring Work.

$7,300 SUIT IS DISMISSED

Judge Megee will call the docket Saturday morning and will then adjourn court for one week. There is nothing urgent for next week and Judge Megee decided to take a recess as the farmers were not yet ready for jury service and the jury cases will not be tried until the last of this month.

The case of the Kensington Farm, a Tennessee corporation, against Alpheus P. Walker has been dismissed by the plaintiff. The case was on a contract and demanded $7,300, alleging that some cattle the firm purchased of Walker were not as he represented them.

Samuel L. Innis has been appointed special judge to hear the case of the Fairview Burial Grounds association against John F. Smelser. It is a petition for the appraisement of ground for cemetery purposes. Judge Megee is a cousin of the defendant and the change was asked by the plaintiff.

DECIDE AGAINST GENERAL STRIKE

Executive Committee of United Mine Workers not to Protest Against Colorado Fight.

AN AVENUE IS LEFT OPEN

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 8.—The executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America today decided against a general strike of 500,000 miners which had been urged by many locals as a protest against conditions in the Colorado coal fields where civil war has existed. In a statement issued today the committee declared it better for all miners outside of Colorado to remain at work in order that they may better finance the Colorado strike "for one year or ten years", but insisted that if conditions do not improve, a general strike may yet be called.

The statement predicted victory for the Colorado strikers in the "not distant future." After stating that many resolutions had been received the statement said all requests for a general strike had been carefully considered.

C. of C. Membership.

The Kokomo Chamber of Commerce this week launched a membership campaign, which serves to remind us that it is high time the Chamber of Commerce of Rush county bestir itself and seek a greater membership. When the Chamber of Commerce was organized, the city was only barely skimmed over the surface. There are yet out of the Chamber of Commerce many men who should be members and help work for the betterment of Rushville. They will come in but for the asking.

There are others, however, who will have to be made understand that the Chamber of Commerce is invaluable. It is the melting pot of the community, the clearing house of the county where all affairs of public interest may find expression and where men may give their opinions for what they are worth.

The stability of the Chamber of Commerce is already assured by the large and excellent membership which it boasts, but the more cosmopolitan and larger it is, the more influential will it be and the better results will it obtain. The Chamber of Commerce, while it may have as its prime intent the industrial betterment of Rushville, it is infinitely more firm in character and far wider in scope than any similar organization that has gone before it.

There is all the more reason many men who are out of the Chamber of Commerce should be in it. The Kokomo Chamber of Commerce put on a twelve-hour new membership campaign. A committee was appointed to be in complete charge of the campaign and it was arranged that the whole city should be canvassed.

There have been set forth twenty-four reasons why the Kokomo Chamber of Commerce should have encouragement and aid of every citizen. A majority of them are to the point for Rushville. A few of the most pointed paragraphs, are as follows, with the name Rushville supplied where Kokomo was.

It is the melting pot for the ideas of the community.

It works for the whole city, not any one class or section.

It advocates "Community Uplift"

It advocates "Community Uplift"

It is democratic and every member has an equal voice in affairs.

It is developing a greater interurban trade, through the Retail Merchants' Division.

It is being governed by what the people want in the way of a bigger, better and greater Rushville.

It proposes, in the preparation and distribution of literature, that every citizen shall "Know Rushville."

It is "right on the job" to adjust our housing conditions and get more factories.

It will learn Rushville's bad and good points, help remedy the former and enlarge the latter.

It creates confidence in the future of the city, and confidence is the foundation upon which all business is built.

It is making it possible for the community to "think out" the big public questions that crowd each other for answers.

It is free from old time methods of management, and is organized to accomplish things with the least delay.

It considers community health of fundamental importance and is laboring for a high standard.

It has a telephone line—3369—which is never too busy to call up and report anything you have on your mind.

It appeals to its members to prevent disfigurement of fences and temporary structures with bills and posters.

It is managed by men of big affairs, successful in their own business and whose time and service could not be hired if that were necessary.

It holds membership in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which is for the treatment of national affairs along business lines instead of as political questions.

MEXICO FACES MANY PROBLEMS

Question of Indiana is one of Biggest That Remains and is Likely to Remain

IS BABY AMONG NATIONS

Average American Would Let Country Alone—Educated Want Place in Government.

BY WILLIAM SHEPHERD.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 8.—Let Mexico alone. That's the thought that impresses itself upon every American—that is, every American who doesn't own a mine or a concession—who knows anything about the situation here.

Here's the smile that shows the feeling: A lot of old folks, father, mother and grandparents, are watching a baby walk. The baby falls and bump its head; again it tumbles and almost every stroll the baby takes winds up in some disaster. But what nonsense it would be if the parents and grandparents finally decided that the baby must not be permitted to walk. It would be the height of folly as well as cruelty to the child to say:

"Everytime baby tries to learn to walk it hurts itself. Therefore, we'll push him around in his carriage and we won't permit him to try to walk." It would be less cruel to kill the baby outright than to treat it in this fashion.

Mexico is a baby among nations. American intervention would be strapping Mexico into a go-cart.

Mexico has a tremendous distance to go to reachmanhood among nations. The distance is so great—centuries long—that it makes you tired to consider it. But it's a journey that many of the greatest nations of the earth have not yet completed, after centuries of struggle. All the problems that these elder nations have solved and are solving for themselves, Mexico must solve for herself.

If we narrow the comparisons down to measuring Mexico with the United States we discover that Mexico has not yet even started to solve her Indian problem. Her wild west days, her Custer's last fight and charges, her massacres, her Indian reservations, all are before her and haven't even been touched. There are vast territories in Mexico where a Mexican doesn't dare to venture for fear of the Indians.

Of Mexico's populations of 16,000,000, almost 8,000,000 are Indians. When we look back in the United States at our Indian days and consider that Mexico's can't even begin to take up the Indian problems until it has solved the problem of how to take care of its own government in the semi-civilized capital of Mexico City, we begin to see something of the long road that Mexico faces. In the northwest of Mexico, just as the northwest of the United States in the old days the sturdiest of the Indians reside, the Yaquis. In their own way they are a noble race. Here's a picture of one thing that happened among them.

After Madero's victory, Gen. B. F. Viljeon, the former Boer general, who aided Madero, was sent to persuade the Yaquis to peace. He went to them in the mountains, with the wise governor of the state, and an interpreter. They received him in the campfire circle and passed round the pipe of peace, just as the Sioux Indians used to do. Viljeon made a speech, saying that Madero loved the Indians. Then the governor of the state made a speech. Then the two civilized men seated themselves on the ground and awaited an answer. For two long hours not a word was spoken. The grizzled old Yaquis chief sat as silent as a Sphinx. The Indians sat like stone images. The civilized men figeted around and finally Viljeon got up and made another speech, an hour long. Then the governor of the state spoke again with more kindness than before. The two men waited another two hours of silence. The chief did not speak; the Indians only pulled at their pipes.

Viljeon and the governor tried one more speech each. Fourteen hours had passed; the morning sun was high in the sky; the two civilized men not as stoical as the Indians, were nearly wrenched. And finally the old chief spoke these words. "What about our stolen lands? You haven't said a word of them. Go, and come back only when you can give us back our lands." The two civilized men were glad enough to get away alive.

The Indian problem is only one of the thousands of problems that await solution of Baby Mexico—when it grows up. Another problem is how to get a middle-class of people, a backbone for the government. A Mexican youth who has gone to college immediately insists on a place in the government. He won't be a tradesman or a merchant; white collars and cuffs, all the rest of his life, for him, with lots of homage and little work. The only place he can find these things is in the government employ. To every "educated" Mexican the government appears to be only an institution in which he can find a berth. That's how revolutions start.

In the United States there are millions of homes of happy contented folks, the backbone of the nation, who never worry about the government unless they see it going too far wrong; they settle that in about a dozen hours on the next election day and then go back to their duties, of raising good children and maintaining contented homes. Mexico still has to find a place in her social scale for such a class as this. In Mexico you are either an "aristocrat" or you're an ignorant Indian. Let Mexico alone is good advice. It's not only a baby nation learning to walk but it also strangely resembles a bomb loaded with a lot of problems that Uncle Sam doesn't want to touch.

Never Suspected Kidney Trouble*Gained Fifty Pounds in Weight.

Some time ago I was suffering from what I supposed was rheumatism. I became so bad that I could hardly get on my feet from a sitting position. I ran down in weight from 195 to 145 pounds. I tried different kinds of medicine but received little or no help. I saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root highly recommended for kidney trouble, but I never had any idea that my kidneys were affected. I thought I would try a fifty-cent bottle of Swamp-Root and see what the effect would be. I commenced taking it according to directions and in a few days I saw that it was helping me. I used the fifty-cent bottle and then bought three more dollar bottles and they completely cured me. I have gone back to my original weight—195 pounds—and I am a thorough advocate of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as I believe it to be a remarkable preparation for what it is recommended to do.

DOMN M. ROBERTS GIVEN FREEDOM

Mayor of Terre Haute is Acquitted of Election Frauds on First Ballot.

CROWD APPLAUDES VERDICT

Compls Him to Make Speech in Court Room—Prosecutor Says Action Halts Reform

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., May 8.—Mayor Domn Roberts, who has been on trial for fifty-two days, charged in a grand jury indictment with election frauds, was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court last night at 11:00 o'clock after only one ballot had been taken.

Robert's friends packed the court room and made a big demonstration when the verdict was announced. They were insistent and he was finally compelled to mount a table and make a speech.

"I can not express my deep feeling," he said. "I want to thank my attorneys who have so loyally stood by me at times when things appeared so dark. I thank the court for the fair treatment I have received from its hands and I want to thank my friends for their kindly manifestation here tonight. My heart is too full. I can not express my appreciation of this verdict."

Joseph Roach, the special prosecutor who was in charge of the case, was not in the court room when the verdict was read. When informed of the decision of the jury he said:

"I have done my duty. The verdict is quite a surprise to me in the light of all the conclusive evidence that the state piled up. To try the others indicted for election crimes in the light of this verdict would be persecution."

The trial ended today has assumed state-wide, even national importance because of the political figures involved. Towards its close Crawford Fairbanks, millionaire brewer and Democratic politician eclipsed even the mayor-defendant because of his alleged interference in the action of the Vigo-county grand jury. Thomas Taggart, national committeeman, may or may not have had his finger in the pie. Whether he did or not, the assertion has been made that he with Fairbanks meddled just in time to prevent the jury subpoenaing the latter.

The history of this case tells one of the most interesting chapters of political history in Indiana. It dates back to 1910, when John Lamb was the political power in the Democratic party in Terre Haute and when Domn Roberts was his henchman. A break between Roberts and Lamb is commonly given credit for the entire muddle.

Roberts was city engineer. Louis Gerhardt, a Lamb man, was mayor of Terre Haute. He removed Roberts from his position. Roberts charged this was done for "political purposes" and took his case to the courts but was defeated. Thus began an enmity between Lamb and Roberts that has lasted to the present day. It is said that the desire of Roberts to supplant Lamb in city, county and district politics has been the cause of every move of Roberts since that time.

In 1910, Lamb and Crawford Fairbanks came to their open break. Lamb was defending Thomas R. Marshall before the state convention. He attacked Fairbanks, calling him a brewer with modifications. Fairbanks said he had been insulted. Lamb won his fight for John Kern was nominated for the United States senator as Marshall desired and against the wish of the Fairbanks-Taggart faction. It was then Taggart made his famous remark that "the Taggart machine in on the scrap heap," which proved far from true.

But Roberts here saw his opportunity to gain a powerful aid against Lamb, and he sided with Fairbanks. He began to organize to beat Lamb, in Vigo county. It was following this organization that 768 votes were cast in the Taylorville precinct for precinct committeeman in 1911. There aren't more than three hundred men, women and children dogs and cats in Taylorville. The result was close and hinged on this precinct. But Roberts defeated Lamb in Vigo county and Terre Haute, wrestling the organizations away from him. He then tried to win in the district.

When at Rockville, Roberts tried either to elect himself or another district chairman he found it impossible. A deadlock resulted, later he could not, and Randall is still district chairman.

Another phase of the fight then appeared. Lamb is attorney for the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction company. Roberts attacked the traction company. As mayor of Terre Haute he attacked the franchise, which was so broad as to allow the company the use of most any of the city streets. In the fall of 1910 the case was tried of the city of Terre Haute against the T. H. I. & E. Traction Co., in which an attempt was made to set aside the franchise.

Here a peculiar and still unexplained feature appeared. Judge Robinson of Spencer, the trial judge took the case under advisement. Judge Robinson was a man whose integrity was unquestioned, but that case remained "under advisement" until the judge died a few weeks ago. When newspapermen questioned the judge time and again he would say: "Oh, I'm tired," or "I'm not feeling good," or something else equally unsatisfactory to those who wanted a decision. With the death of the judge, the case was set back at the beginning. The Traction company has its franchise and Roberts appears defeated in this phase of his fight against John Lamb.

Roberts raised a campaign cry against the traction company and was elected mayor in 1913. Detectives were brought in by the traction company in a hitched-up plan to oust him in case he was elected. Others allege that the traction company had nothing to do with it.

It was following this that Judge Fortune got into the fight. Up to this time Fortune and Roberts had been known as henchmen of Fairbanks and Tom Taggart. Fortune announced his candidacy for re-election as circuit judge this year. Roberts opposed him.

Fortune is believed to have decided that either he must break Roberts or Roberts would break him. It was at this time that Crawford Fairbanks, the real power in Terre Haute Democracy, left quietly for a vacation in the southern seas. His political opponents assert that Fairbanks knew the palms of Fortune knew the unremediable break between the mayor and the judge and decided to leave the country and "let them fight it out."

Joseph Roach ex-convict and confessed murderer, was appointed special prosecutor to convict Roberts if possible. He knew every turn of the politics here, where politics confessedly is the dirtiest existing in any city in Indiana. The grand jury was convened. Chambers' Hamill was placed over it as special prosecutor.

This grand jury, composed of farmers and directed by a man of unquestioned integrity, proved a surprise to all concerned. It went its way with steady stride, returning indictments by the handful, without fear or favor. When the county machine, controlled by Roberts, refused to pay its fees or those of the prosecutor, they let it be known they would serve without pay.

There was no interference until according to Hamill, he let Fortune know that within the next week Tom Beggs, business associate of Crawford Fairbanks, would be indicted for election frauds, and that "within thirty minutes after Fairbanks returned to Indiana he would be subpoenaed before the grand jury."

According to Hamill, Fortune met Fairbanks in Indianapolis within a less time than 24 hours. Fairbanks came down from Chicago at a time when the grand jury had adjourned and could not call him. The next thing Terre Haute knew, the grand jury and Hamill were issuing statements charging the judge with bad faith. It has been charged that Taggart and Roberts were also in the conference at the Denison hotel, that Saturday afternoon after Fortune had learned that Fairbanks was to be called before the jury, but this is denied by others. Certain it is that Roberts and Taggart were in the hotel that afternoon.

The next development was the dismissal of several indictments against Roberts' men and the rumor that all would be dismissed. An attorney for the prosecution left the case. An element of Terre Haute citizens condemned the entire proceedings.

Thus the present trial of Roberts was an off-shoot of his quarrel with Lamb. The sentence of William Huffman to the penitentiary for election frauds was an incident.

STILL CHANCE TO PLAY GAME SUNDAY

Manager Fisher Has Hopes That Weather Will Permit Contest With All-Pros.

WOULD BE PITCHER'S BATTLE

Manager Fisher, of the Arcadians has not yet cancelled the game with the Cincinnati All-Pros for Sunday and is hoping that the weather will become more favorable. There is still some chance of the game being played and the fans are like the management in that they hope the weather man will allow it to be played. The game will not be called off until the last moment and only after it is seen that it will be impossible to play.

The game with the All-Pros should be a pitcher's battle between Ed Sanford for Rushville and either Pfeister or Leake for the Cincinnati team. The Rushville team will line up the same as last Sunday with the exception of right field. Finley, a new man, will be seen there. Poston will umpire and one of the largest crowds of the season is expected if the game is played.

Smith today favored in the betting, but there is a lot of money from the East Side being bet that Levinsky will stay the ten rounds.

WAISTCOAT AND GIRDLE OF WHITE PIQUE.

There is no denying the fact that we have taken possession of the vest; not in a way however, that is forward or bold; in most instances we have feminized it and added little nifty touches here and there that leave it masculine in name only. Cote de cheval, striped and figured silks and white pique are among the materials most generally chosen for the vest. The frock of corded white cotton shown in 8129-8177 has a vest and girdle of white pique; tiny crystal buttons serve to close them and the revers on either side are of voile touched with a hand embroidered motif. The blouse has a raglan sleeve and a flaring Japanese collar of the voile; the skirt shows an applied tunic finished with a line of stitching to match the shoulders. To make this dress in size 36, 2 yards of 36-inch material are required for the blouse (8129) and 4 3/4 yards of the same width for the skirt (8177). These corded cottons are wide and may be purchased from 75 cents a yard and up.

An excellent one-piece dress for those chilly, damp days that come even in the midst of summer is shown in number 8021. A softly colored plaid in which the predominating color is blue, is trimmed with white broadcloth and soutache braid. This dress may be copied for a girl of sixteen, with 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material.

CLUB PROGRAM WAS APPROVED

At Meeting in Richmond Sixth District Federation Officers Make Final Arrangements.

FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING

At Least Three Hundred Visitors, Including Delegates, Are Expected to Attend May 21-22.

The program for the Woman's Federation of clubs of the sixth district, which will hold its annual meeting in Richmond May 21 and 22, was formerly approved at a meeting of the committee in Richmond this week.

Rush county expects to send the largest delegation that ever represented the county to the meeting. Rush county women have no part on the program, with the exception that the county chairman will make her annual report and Miss Leona Thomas will play a violin solo.

The program is regarded as one of the strongest ever prepared for a sixth district convention, and compares favorably with the programs prepared by the other district federations in the state.

The Richmond federation, which has charge of the arrangements, is planning to entertain more than 300 visitors on the second day of the meeting. The majority of these will be delegates from the different clubs in the district, which embraces the same countries as are in the political district. The delegates, who arrive on Thursday, will be entertained in the homes of the Richmond members.

The purpose of the federation is to study questions that will result in improvement of conditions affecting humanity. One of these, which concerns women particularly, is their enfranchisement.

While this question is not featured on the program, it is anticipated interesting references will be made to it and suffrage undoubtedly will have a place in the reports of some of the committee. As yet, convention politics have not warmed up sufficiently to indicate there will be any spirited contests in the election of officers.

The program for the two-day meeting follows:

THURSDAY, 2:30 P. M.

Music—Garfield orchestra.
Report of Department Committees.
Adjourn to Lawn Tea at 4 o'clock.
Evening, 7:30 p. m.
Music—High School Orchestra.
Invocation—Mrs. Allen D. Hole.
Addresses of Welcome—For City of Richmond, Mayor W. J. Robbins; For Richmond Federation of Clubs, Miss Sarah A. Hill.
Response—Mrs. E. K. Sowash.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

SHOWS VALUE OF FRESH AIR

Children Taught in Open Rooms Advance More Rapidly and Make Much More Improvement

DEMONSTRATED BY F. H. MANN

Reports Series of Experiments to Sociological Section of National Tuberculosis Society.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—That school children who are taught in fresh air class rooms advance more rapidly in their studies and make greater improvement in weight and strength than children in regular class rooms, is a conclusion demonstrated by Frank H. Mann, of New York, before the Sociological Section of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis this afternoon. The speaker reported on a Series of experiments and the Board of Education in which three groups of children were studied to note the effect of fresh air upon them. In one group, the children were placed in fresh air classes and were fed during school hours with milk and crackers morning and afternoon; in the second group, the children were placed in fresh air classes but were not fed and the third group, the children were left in the ordinary class room under regular conditions. Every effort was made to eliminate or equalize in the comparison such variable factors as age, home conditions, physical conditions, nativity, etc. The two groups of children in the fresh air classes were all undernourished and anaemic at admission.

The results of this experiment extending from September to June, showed that all of the poorly nourished and anaemic children in the fresh air classes gained in weight, red corpuscles in the blood, general nutrition, and physical tone. The gains were made for the most part independently of the home environment and of the financial conditions of the children's family, suggesting that the association between poverty and malnutrition in school children is not so close as has been commonly assumed, and that cases of extreme poverty with lack of necessary food at home are not nearly so prevalent as has been frequently stated. It was also demonstrated that, even without school feeding, fresh air classes can be run with advantage to the children of poor families, although the greatest benefit was obtained where extra feeding of children was employed.

"All lines of tuberculosis activity lead more or less directly back to the great truth that most of the implantations of this disease occur in childhood," was the declaration of Dr. William Charles White, of Pittsburgh, another speaker this afternoon, in arguing that all movements for the betterment of the children should center in the anti-tuberculosis organization. Dr. White pointed out that anything which anti tuberculosis societies did for the welfare of the child was a direct contribution to the prevention of tuberculosis. Dr. John B. Hawes, 2d secretary of the Massachusetts Trustees of Hospitals for Consumptives, Boston, declared that direct infection of children by their parents or other members of the family who have tuberculosis is very largely responsible for the spread of the disease. A large percentage of original infection of tuberculosis, Dr. Hawes contended occurs in childhood.

BIG BENEFIT IS ARRANGED

Proceeds to Pay Off Mortgage on Home of Belva Lockwood.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, May 8.—Mrs. Belva Lockwood, noted suffragist, and the only woman candidate for President, is to occupy a box at the pageant to be given for her benefit in the Hotel La Salle tonight by Chicago society and clubwomen. The proceeds of the pageant will go toward a fund of $3,000 to be used in paying off a $3,000 balance due on a mortgage on Mrs. Lockwood's home in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Edward Cudahy, Mrs. Charles R. Crane, Mrs. B. D. Armour and Mrs. William Wrigley, Jr., are among the boxholders.

HAVE PRETTY HAIR

Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and no Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage

If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage, sold by F. B. Johnson and at all drug counters, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.

part of the garment itself—will not pull or rip off—never needs resewing. Far easier handled than pins and buttons and eliminates all danger of blood poisoning. Fastenings are in front so baby can be dressed without turning. One clever fastening prevents Vanta Vests from working up around the waist.

Vanta Vests are made double breasted—fitted close around the neck—are finely finished in a variety of materials in sizes for babies of all ages. Come to the Infant's Department and see them for your baby's sake.

24 KNIGHTS GO TO KNIGHTSTOWN

Ivy Co. No. 35, Uniform Rank Team
Confers Initiatory Degree on Class of 14 Thursday Night

TRIP MADE IN AUTOMOBILES

Despite the rain and unfavorable weather, twenty-four members of Ivy Company, No. 35, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, went to Knightstown last night where the team from this lodge conferred the initiatory work on a class of fourteen candidates. Visitors were present from Newcastle, Cambridge City, Greenfield and other places. Knightstown had nine candidates, Cambridge City four and Rushville one. The work of the Rushville degree team received much praise and it was declared the best ever witnessed in Knightstown.

Following the degree work a buffet luncheon was served and short talks were made by several of the members. The members of the local lodge made the trip in automobiles.

WEATHER BUREAU SPOILED CLEAN-UP

Rain Most of the Week Prevented Residents From Performing the Annual Task.

TO GIVE HIM ANOTHER CHANCE

A city wagon failed to find very much trash yesterday when it traversed some of the allies in the city. Not much trash was expected because the weather has been so disagreeable that residents have had little opportunity to clean up. Mayor. Bebout announced that this would be clean-up week and that wagons would haul away the debris Thursday and Saturday.

Mayor Bebout was out of the city today, but Street Commissioner Ell Jones said the city would give the weather man another chance. Persons who still contemplate cleaning up their premises may rely on it that the city will haul the debris away.

ATTEND MEMORIAL TO MAY W. DONNAN

Former Members of Her Class Here Present at Meeting Held on Her Birthday Anniversary.

TRIBUTES TO HER MEMORY

Five members of the class which the late May W. Donnan taught here attended the memorial services in her honor yesterday afternoon at the Herron Art Institute, Indianapolis. Sculpture Court at the Institute was crowded. Yesterday was the anniversary of her birth. Those attending from here were Mrs. C. H. Parsons, Mrs. F. R. McClannahan, Mrs. Thomas McWhinney, Mrs. B. F. Miller and Mrs. F. G. Hackleman.

The Indianapolis Star says appreciative tributes were offered by Dr. Pantzer, Miss Julia Harrison Moore and Charles W. Moores. Mrs. Gavin read several of Mrs. Donnan's poems, a collection of which has been recently published, and musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Rappaport, Miss Johnson, Miss Charlotte Lieber and Mrs. Pantzer.

A movement is said to be on foot to make a permanent gift to the Art Institute in memory of Mrs. Donnan and quite a sum has already been raised among a small number of persons. It is believed that many of her friends will gladly contribute to the fund when the plan is laid before them.
